

Oyster 72 Races at Cork

Direct from winning her class at Antigua Sailing Week, the 72 Oystercatcher XXV sailed in class Super Zero at Cork Week, her best result being a 2nd on IRC corrected time in this premier hotly contested racing class. This was also the second time Oystercatcher had raced against the 100ft canting keel super racer Maximus, the result being 2-0 in Oystercatcher's favour. After completing a commercial charter at Cowes Week for Accenture, Oystercatcher will be back at Fox's for a small refit and is now seriously for sale with a choice of keels, bow thrusters and new generator. Winning races or cruising fast in comfort – Oystercatcher can do both.

ARCTIC ADVENTURE FOR BILLY BUDD

Owners Mariacristina Rapisardi and Giovanni Cristofori set out from Ipswich immediately after the handover of their new Oyster 72, Billy Budd, in February and headed across the Atlantic to Cuba. After a brief stopover in Newport, USA in May, Billy Budd sailed north to Baffin Island and the Arctic. We look forward to publishing a report of their cruising adventures in a future edition of Oyster News.
